MORE SALARY WANTED

By the Common Pleas Judges
In This Sub-Division.

LONG AND ARDUOUS DUTIES

The Courts Are In Session Most of the Year and It Is Claimed That They Do Not Receive Enough Remuneration For Their Labor.

At a meeting of the Stark County Bar association, a report was made by them, a portion of which is given below:

The members of the bar and others, including prominent taxpayers and business men, have felt for some time that the common pleas judges for this sub-division are not receiving adequate compensation for the service required in the discharge of their duties. An application to the legislature for an increase in their compensation has been in contemplation for some time, with no thought of undertaking to get such legislation without the knowledge and consent of the people. This sub-division is composed of the counties of Stark, Columbiana and Carroll, provided by law with three common pleas judges. Business in the sub-division has rapidly grown within the few years past, and has now become of a character, in quantity and quality, comparing favorably with the larger sub-divisions, in point of business, in the state. With the increase in business and consequent greater demand upon the time and services of the judges, there has been no corresponding increase in compensation. It is a fact that in many of the sub-divisions and counties in Ohio, acts have been passed granting to judges in populous counties increased compensation for their services.

In Stark and this county the common pleas courts are in session substantially all the year. For several years in Stark county it has required the services of two common pleas judges, sitting practically the entire year, except for a short vacation in the summer. This requires the constant attention of the resident common pleas judge, and the services of Judge Taylor, of Carroll county, who has been required to sit the greater part of his time in Stark county, away from home, and of course at greatly increased expenses. There is probably no sub-division in Ohio where the business is greater or the magnitude of the cases involved larger than in this sub-division.

It is believed by the members of the bar in the sub-division that these judges deserve, as they well earn, additional compensation, and a compensation commensurate with that paid for similar services in other parts of the state.

This sub-division is composed of the counties of Stark, Columbiana and Carroll. The tax duplicates of these three counties are in round numbers as follows:

Stark county.....	$40,000,000
Columbiana county.....	23,000,000
Carroll county.....	8,500,000
Total.....	$71,500,000

It is proposed that the judges resident in this sub-division, three in number, shall receive additional compensation from the three counties of $1,500 per year, which shall make the salaries paid $4,000 to each judge. If this is divided in proportion to the tax duplicates of each county, it would be apportioned, 5-9 to Stark county, 3-9 to this county and 1-9 to Carroll county. It will be at once seen that this additional tax will be so small as scarcely to be appreciated, amounting to about 6¢ cents upon each $1,000 of taxable property upon the tax duplicate.

In no other sub-division in this state is as much and as continuous service required of its judges, where the additional compensation has not been freely granted. There is therefore nothing new in the proposed measure extending this additional compensation to this sub-division. There is no good reason why judges of the character and standing of those occupying the bench in this sub-division should not be treated in the same manner as other judges similarly situated in this state. While the cost of living, as well as the volume and character of business, has been constantly on the increase, there has been no attempt made in this sub-division to obtain additional compensation for our judges.

TRIED TO VICTIMIZE HIM,

A Music Concern Got Left in an Attempt to Plot J. M. Stoffel.

J. M. Stoffel, of Union street, claims that an attempt was made to victimize him by an agent working for an automatic music concern. Stoffel signed a contract, that was read to him by the agent, to purchase a nickel in the slot music box. The conditions of the sale were that, should the proceeds of the box average $2 a week, that amount was to be remitted to the company until $250 was paid in, when the box then became the property of the buyer. The box was put in Stoffel's place of business, but the stipulated weekly amounts failed to materialize, and the music company began to kick, and threatened to enter suit for money or the return of the box. Here is where the local man claims fraud was practiced. He says that when the contract was signed no such terms were agreed upon, and accordingly he consulted a lawyer with a view to fighting the case. The music company backed down at this, and the box was returned to them after a percentage had been deducted from the proceeds of the box by Stoffel for the trouble of attending to it.

THEY TRY TO IMPOSE.

Numerous Deceptions That Are Practiced to Secure Relief.

The township trustees say that many deceptions are practiced by people who wish to receive aid from the town when they are not entitled to it. An instance that occurred some time ago shows the class of people that the trustees have to deal with. A woman came in and recited an almost heart rending story of the trials and tribulations that beset her and the family. The woman's pleadings were such as would appeal to the sympathies of an unsuspecting person, but the trustees know a thing or two by reason of past experiences during their official career. An investigation was made and the fact developed that the story was used as an imposition. The head of the family was employed steadily, as were also two sons, and they were all in apparently good circumstances. Many other cases, a parallel to the above, have come under the trustees' notice, but long service has made them good judges of the inconsistencies of human nature, and in almost every case they are able to detect any attempt to defraud the city.

TRADE IS QUIET.

Bad Weather Is Hard on the Crockery Business.

The New York correspondent of a trade paper says the following of trade for the past week:

"The adverse weather conditions last week had its effect on business, and there were not as many buyers here as had been expected during the week of the convention of the wholesalers. Friday, which is usually a good day, was exceptionally quiet, and representatives of the local retail trade were few. The outside buyers are devoting their attention mainly to import samples. The mail order business is quiet. The road men are sending in quite as many orders as could be looked for at this season, but in most cases these orders are rather disappointing. While the tendency to buy only for immediate requirements is a feature of the trade of the jobbers and manufacturers' agents, the importers report freer buying. Advances from all quarters are favorable in tone and indicate an accession of confidence as an effect of the marked success of the bond issue."

IS A FARCE.

What Sachtleben Thinks of the Trial of Lenz's Murderers.

In a letter to his father at Alton, William Sachtleben, the young St. Louis wheelman, who left about a year ago to unravel the mystery of the death of Frank G. Lenz, the lost Pittsburgh cyclist, and subsequently to bring his murderers to justice, states that he will leave Armenia just as soon as he can conveniently get away, a few weeks hence. He says the trial of the murderers, who are still retained, is nominally in progress, but that it is the biggest kind of a farce. There is an evident desire, he states, to fix the guilt for the crime upon the Armenian prisoners, who are known to have been innocent parties to the conspiracy that cost Lenz his life, and who were arrested and retained for the evidence that they could give. The writer bitterly denounces the venality of the officers of the courts of justice in that land.

THOSE QUESTIONS

Answered in a Manner That Met With Approval.

The questions that were submitted to the school teachers by Superintendent Sanor, for the purpose of gleaning information in regard to their opinions on certain matters, were answered, in every instance, in a manner that met with the highest approval from the principal. These questions were asked purely for personal reasons by Mr. Sanor, in order to become better acquainted with the attitude of the teachers. A report of these answers will probably be made to the board.

MAY SUE FOR DAMAGES

Claim That the Value of Their Property Is Impaired.

MATTER IN AN ATTORNEY'S HANDS

The Improvement Recently Made on the Calcutta Road May Cost Liverpool More Than Was Bargained For—A Rumor Verified.

A report became current on the streets yesterday that George Gaston and Anton Walz, both owners of property on Calcutta road, would commence suit against the city for $10,000 and $5,000 respectively, amounts asked because of the damage it is claimed was caused to their property, on Calcutta road, by reason of the improvements made by the city. Mr. Gaston was seen by a reporter and asked if any credence could be attached to the rumor that was in circulation. He replied evasively, and stated that he did not wish to make public his intentions. Continuing, he said that taxes were paid on his property to the middle of the road and now that the city saw fit to widen the street, an immense cut was taken off his property, leaving a steep bank, which is now giving way and will always require a retaining wall to keep it in place. Anton Walz, who owns property adjoining Gaston's, and also affected by the cut, was seen. He was more communicative and admitted that a damage suit was a probability. Like Gaston, he claimed great damage had been caused to his property and believed that the city should recompense him to the extent of a reasonable amount. The matter has been placed in the hands of a competent attorney by Mr. Walz, who will conduct a thorough investigation, and if a technical point is found, action will be commenced at once.

THE RECHABITES.

Favorite and Liberty Tents Gave a Grand Reception.

The Rechabites had a royally good time in their hall in the Thompson building, Fifth street, last night. Reverend B. F. Hodgson made an eloquent opening address and then asked grace as the guests sat down to a splendid feast of good things, provided by the ladies of Liberty tent, No. 29. The tables presented an exceedingly handsome appearance, and received warm commendation at the hands of those assembled. There were five tables, each seating 36 persons, making 180 at the first table, and a large number were doomed to wait for the second table. It is estimated that 300 persons partook of the substantial and delicious.

At the close of the feast, Brother Samuel Douglass made a brief but eloquent and touching address, showing the great good accomplished by the kindred organizations, under the blessing of Providence. Miss Sadie Coleman followed with an excellent address, giving the history of the order of Rechabites of East Liverpool, pointing out the grand and noble features of the order, telling how highly the Liverpool organizations had been honored by the grand lodge, speaking of the warm reception and courteous treatment accorded the committee from this place, some years since, by President Harrison, at Washington City, closing with an appeal to the members to stand firmly by the principles of the order, and do all they can in the elevation of humanity. Miss Coleman was warmly applauded.

A Mr. Remlap was called upon to respond to the toast "Woman." He was accorded warm greeting, as a stranger in a strange land, and made to feel thoroughly at home. His remarks were listened to with close attention, and he was the recipient of hearty hand clapping at the close of his talk.

Mrs. Sinclair read a paper entitled "The Mother's Prayer," touching and pathetic in the extreme, and rendered in nice manner. This closed the entertainment, with the universal verdict, on the part of invited guests, that the Rechabite reception was a flattering success from every standpoint.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

Ransom and the Troubadours Make a Happy Hit.

The Troubadours attracted a splendid audience last night, and the entertainment was a delightful one, the sweet singers being heartily applauded. Ransom caught the crowd with his clever sleight of hand work, and he demonstrated, to the complete satisfaction of his audience, that motion is quicker than sight. Some of his tricks were explained by him, and the solution showed how easy it is to deceive. But there were others that he failed to explain, notably the cabinet puzzle, the cabinet being composed merely of hanging curtains, and there was apparently no possibility of the gentleman being assisted by anyone in the performance. Ransom was tied to his chair, his hands tied behind his back, and then securely fastened to the chair, with knots which could not be untied. Then a string was tied about his neck and the double ends passed down behind his back and securely fastened to his hands. His knees were also tied together, and strings or ribbons were fastened around his ankles and the ends thereof were nailed to the floor. The floor was examined to see that no one could rise up through the trap and assist him. Then an attendant placed on his lap a bell and the curtains were closed. Immediately there came the ringing of the bell and an instant later it came bounding out upon the platform. The curtains were thrown aside, and Ransom sat serenely smiling. Then a tambourine was placed in position on his knee, in company with the bell—the program was repeated, the bell ringing and the tambourine sounding. Then a horn was added and both the former instruments enacted their part, while the horn was discovered in Ransom's mouth, and was being tooted vigorously. Rev. J. R. Greene, of the East End U.P. church, and Yrrah Remlap, of this city, attended to the tying, by request of the audience, and they did their part in a thoroughly satisfactory manner. The matter was a complete puzzle to the two gentlemen who were closely watching Mr. Ransom, who lucidly explained that the modus operandi was not spiritualism, magnetism or rheumatism. Ransom finally effected a complete and laughable sell at the expense of the gentlemen who were trying to detect and discover his modus operandi of operations, and the audience laughed gleefully at the two victims. Ransom is a clever gentleman, and is an earnest worker in the ranks of the Young Men's Christian association of Brooklyn, N. Y.

ON THE RISE.

An Immense Amount of Coal Passing.

The river continues to rise. An immense amount of coal has passed down in tows. The vast quantity that had accumulated in Pittsburg during the suspension of navigation, is nearly all shipped away.

The steamboat Virginia is a disappointment as far as speed is concerned. This has been apparent lately, when the new boat has been unable to keep up with the schedule followed by the Hudson and Keystone State. As the Virginia was built and equipped with speed as the main point, this is indeed a disappointment. However, when the condensers are added to the boat's machinery equipment, it is believed she will use less coal and make a fast boat after all.

STARTED WORK.

Men From This City are Building a Tool House This Afternoon.

L. L. Wilson, of Ellwood City, the courteous agent of Jutte & Co., is in town making preparations to commence the stone work on the bridge. Carpenters are at work this afternoon building a shed to store the tools and other implements in. Mr. Wilson says that about 25 men from here will be given work on the construction of the piers and that work will be commenced in dead earnest as soon as the railroad company put in the new switch for the siding of stone. More machinery will arrive tomorrow.

HAS RETURNED.

But He Didn't Go to Cuba to Fight the Don.

Edward Conners, Jr., the young man that a local paper started for Cuba in company with a number of others to fight for the insurgents, returned to his home in this city Wednesday night. Conners ran away from home on Monday, but, like all other runaways, decided in a short time that there was "no place like home," and after spending a couple of days in Pittsburg returned here. His parents were very much worried about him during his brief absence and welcomed him back with open arms.

A LARGE SUM

Lost by Proprietor Will Stewart, of the Grand.

Will Stewart, proprietor of the Grand Hotel, lost his pocketbook last night and in it was a large sum of money. He thinks he dropped it in the toilet room of the hotel, as it was found in the cellar this morning, with its contents ransacked and all the money taken. There is no clue to the thief.

CAN GET RIGHT OF WAY

But the Contracts Have a Proviso Attached.

PENNSYLVANIA ROAD NOT IN IT

The Railroad Officials Won't Talk, but Still Continue to Obtain Right of Way. View of a Prominent Potter Regarding Benefits.

The Canton and East Liverpool railroad people are still hard at work securing the right of way, and are sparing neither time nor expense to get it. The right of way for land near the power house was secured the other day by Captain Freese, and the company now have almost a clear title along the river bank. It was learned from a reliable source today that most of the papers granting them the right of way were drawn up with a proviso that, should the road fall into the hands of the Pennsylvania company, the contract would be null and void, and that company would have to make terms of their own. This is done with a view of keeping the Pennsylvania company from ever getting the hold on the city it now has, as many of the owners of land in that part of the city have no use for the Cleveland and Pittsburg railroad, and only grant the right of way with a view of it being of benefit to the city. Many new routes have been suggested, the latest being to start at Canton and pass through Minerva, Bayard, East Rochester, Lynchburg, Hanover, Dungan, Calcutta and cross the Ohio river at this place, uniting there with the Baltimore and Ohio. From Canton it will go on west, uniting again with the Baltimore and Ohio at Chicago Junction. This will be the most direct line from Pittsburg to Chicago, and 18 miles shorter than any competitor.

In conversation with a prominent potter this morning he said: "There is not a bit of doubt in my mind that the company means business, and that the building of the road is assured. It would be of great benefit to East Liverpool as an outlet."

SALEM REPUBLICANS.

They Will Go to St. Louis With the McKinley Club.

The Salem News of Wednesday has the following to say of the McKinley club excursion to St. Louis:

"As stated in the News a few days ago, the McKinley club of East Liverpool is arranging for a trip to St. Louis to attend the national Republican convention. Several sleepers will be engaged and the cost of the trip will be less than $25.

"This morning Mr. W. L. Taylor, of East Liverpool, called up the News by telephone to say that the club in Liverpool will send invitations to the Salem club to join the excursion. Invitations will also be sent to Lisbon and other places, making the train one for Republicans of the county who may desire to go to see the next president nominated.

"It is more than likely that a number of members of the Salem Republican club will accept the invitation and go along."

SPORTING NEWS.

News From a Plug Ugly Who Used to be Here.

Peter Murray, the would-be pugilist who stayed in this city long enough to get himself heartily disliked, has at last got his just deserts, and was arrested in Philadelphia yesterday for prize fighting. Such men as him are better in the workhouse. He is dishonest, and a tool for bad men, as was exemplified by his actions when in East Liverpool.

Bert Scheller, the wrestler who spent some time in this city last winter, was defeated in a match with Even Lewis, at Detroit, yesterday.

Tom Twaddle, the ball player who was signed by Syracuse, has received word not to report if he can secure an engagement with another team. The manager of the Syracuse team gave as his reason for this that he has more outfielders on his list now than he can carry.

Salvation Army.

The meeting tonight at the Salvation Army hall will be of very special interest to all who attend. This will probably be the last opportunity the people of East Liverpool will have to hear "Joe, the Turk," or at least for a long time. He will render some new selections on the cornet, clarionette and saxophone, and also new songs. You will regret it if you do not come.

Buying Horses in Stark.

Forty Stark county horses are being selected for export by the German government, each to be 16 hands high, and to cost not over $150 each. If the sample lot is satisfactory, 400 more are to be selected.

MORE SALARY WANTED

By the Common Pleas Judges In This Sub-Division.

LONG AND ARDUOUS DUTIES

The Courts Are In Session Most of the Year and It Is Claimed That They Do Not Receive Enough Remuneration For Their Labor.

At a meeting of the Stark County Bar association, a report was made by them, a portion of which is given below:

The members of the bar and others, including prominent taxpayers and business men, have felt for some time that the common pleas judges for this sub-division are not receiving adequate compensation for the service required in the discharge of their duties. An application to the legislature for an increase in their compensation has been in contemplation for some time, with no thought of undertaking to get such legislation without the knowledge and consent of the people. This sub-division is composed of the counties of Stark, Columbiana and Carroll, provided by law with three common pleas judges. Business in the sub-division has rapidly grown within the few years past, and has now become of a character, in quantity and quality, comparing favorably with the larger sub-divisions, in point of business, in the state. With the increase in business and consequent greater demand upon the time and services of the judges, there has been no corresponding increase in compensation. It is a fact that in many of the sub-divisions and counties in Ohio, acts have been passed granting to judges in populous counties increased compensation for their services.

In Stark and this county the common pleas courts are in session substantially all the year. For several years in Stark county it has required the services of two common pleas judges, sitting practically the entire year, except for a short vacation in the summer. This requires the constant attention of the resident common pleas judge, and the services of Judge Taylor, of Carroll county, who has been required to sit the greater part of his time in Stark county, away from home, and of course at greatly increased expenses. There is probably no sub-division in Ohio where the business is greater or the magnitude of the cases involved larger than in this sub-division.

It is believed by the members of the bar in the sub-division that these judges deserve, as they well earn, additional compensation, and a compensation commensurate with that paid for similar services in other parts of the state.

This sub-division is composed of the counties of Stark, Columbiana and Carroll. The tax duplicates of these three counties are in round numbers as follows:

Stark county.....	$40,000,000
Columbiana county.....	25,000,000
Carroll county.....	8,500,000

Total.....$71,500,000

It is proposed that the judges resident in this sub-division, three in number, shall receive additional compensation from the three counties of $1,500 per year, which shall make the salaries paid $4,000 to each judge. If this is divided in proportion to the tax duplicates of each county, it would be apportioned, 5-9 to Stark county, 3-9 to this county and 1-9 to Carroll county. It will be at once seen that this additional tax will be so small as scarcely to be appreciated, amounting to about 6½ cents upon each $1,000 of taxable property upon the tax duplicate.

In no other sub-division in this state is as much and as continuous service required of its judges, where the additional compensation has not been freely granted. There is therefore nothing new in the proposed measure extending this additional compensation to this sub-division. There is no good reason why judges of the character and standing of those occupying the bench in this sub-division should not be treated in the same manner as other judges similarly situated in this state. While the cost of living, as well as the volume and character of business, has been constantly on the increase, there has been no attempt made in this sub-division to obtain additional compensation for our judges.

Miss Coleman was warmly applauded.

A Mr. Remlap was called upon to respond to the toast "Woman." He was accorded warm greeting, as a stranger in a strange land, and made to feel thoroughly at home. His remarks were listened to with close attention, and he was the recipient of hearty hand clapping at the close of his talk.

Mrs. Sinclair read a paper entitled "The Mother's Prayer," touching and pathetic in the extreme, and rendered in nice manner. This closed the entertainment, with the universal verdict, on the part of invited guests, that the Rechabite reception was a flattering success from every standpoint.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

Ransom and the Troubadours Make a Happy Hit.

The Troubadours attracted a splendid audience last night, and the entertainment was a delightful one, the sweet singers being heartily applauded. Ransom caught the crowd with his clever sleight of hand work, and he demonstrated, to the complete satisfaction of his audience, that motion is quicker than sight. Some of his tricks were explained by him, and the solution showed how easy it is to deceive. But there were others that he failed to explain, notably the cabinet puzzle, the cabinet being composed merely of hanging curtains, and there was apparently no possibility of the gentleman being assisted by anyone in the performance. Ransom was tied to his chair, his hands tied behind his back, and then securely fastened to the chair, with knots which could not be untied. Then a string was tied about his neck and the double ends passed down behind his back and securely fastened to his hands. His knees were also tied together, and strings or ribbons were fastened around his ankles and the ends thereof were nailed to the floor. The floor was examined to see that no one could rise up through the trap and assist him. Then an attendant placed on his lap a bell and the curtains were closed. Immediately there came the ringing of the bell and an instant later it came bounding out upon the platform. The curtains were thrown aside, and Ransom sat serenely smiling. Then a tambourine was placed in position on his knee, in company with the bell—the program was repeated, the bell ringing and the tambourine sounding. Then a horn was added and both the former instruments enacted their part, while the horn was discovered in Ransom's mouth, and was being tooted vigorously. Rev. J. R. Greene, of the East End U.P. church, and Yrrah Remlap, of this city, attended to the tying, by request of the audience, and they did their part in a thoroughly satisfactory manner. The matter was a complete puzzle to the two gentlemen who were closely watching Mr. Ransom, who lucidly explained that the modus operandi was not spiritualism, magnetism or rheumatism. Ransom finally effected a complete and laughable sell at the expense of the gentlemen who were trying to detect and discover his modus operandi of operations, and the audience laughed gleefully at the two victims. Ransom is a clever gentleman, and is an earnest worker in the ranks of the Young Men's Christian association of Brooklyn, N. Y.

ON THE RISE.

An Immense Amount of Coal Passing.

The river continues to rise. An immense amount of coal has passed down in tows. The vast quantity that had accumulated in Pittsburg during the suspension of navigation, is nearly all shipped away.

The steamboat Virginia is a disappointment as far as speed is concerned. This has been apparent lately, when the new boat has been unable to keep up with the schedule followed by the Hudson and Keystone State. As the Virginia was built and equipped with speed as the main point, this is indeed a disappointment. However, when the condensers are added to the boat's machinery equipment, it is believed she will use less coal and make a fast boat after all.

STARTED WORK.

Men From This City are Building a Tool House This Afternoon.

L. L. Wilson, of Ellwood City, the courteous agent of Jutte & Co., is in town making preparations to commence the stone work on the bridge. Carpenters are at work this afternoon building a shed to store the tools and other implements in. Mr. Wilson says that about 25 men from here will be given work on the construction of the piers and that work will be commenced in dead earnest as soon as the railroad company put in the new switch for the siding of stone. More machinery will arrive tomorrow.

HAS RETURNED.

But He Didn't Go to Cuba to Fight the Don.

Edward Conners, Jr., the young man that a local paper started for Cuba in company with a number of others to fight for the insurgents, returned to his home in this city Wednesday night. Conners ran away from home on Monday, but, like all other runaways, decided in a short time that there was "no place like home," and after spending a couple of days in Pittsburg returned here. His parents were very much worried about him during his brief absence and welcomed him back with open arms.

A LARGE SUM

Lost by Proprietor Will Stewart, of the Grand.

Will Stewart, proprietor of the Grand Hotel, lost his pocketbook last night and in it was a large sum of money. He thinks he dropped it in the toilet room of the hotel, as it was found in the cellar this morning, with its contents ransacked and all the money taken. There is no clue to the thief.

CAN GET RIGHT OF WAY

But the Contracts Have a Proviso Attached.

PENNSYLVANIA ROAD NOT IN IT

The Railroad Officials Won't Talk, but Still Continue to Obtain Right of Way. View of a Prominent Potter Regarding Benefits.

The Canton and East Liverpool railroad people are still hard at work securing the right of way, and are sparing neither time nor expense to get it. The right of way for land near the power house was secured the other day by Captain Freese, and the company now have almost a clear title along the river bank. It was learned from a reliable source today that most of the papers granting them the right of way were drawn up with a proviso that, should the road fall into the hands of the Pennsylvania company, the contract would be null and void, and that company would have to make terms of their own. This is done with a view of keeping the Pennsylvania company from ever getting the hold on the city it now has, as many of the owners of land in that part of the city have no use for the Cleveland and Pittsburg railroad, and only grant the right of way with a view of it being of benefit to the city. Many new routes have been suggested, the latest being to start at Canton and pass through Minerva, Bayard, East Rochester, Lynchburg, Hanover, Dunannon, Calcutta and cross the Ohio river at this place, uniting there with the Baltimore and Ohio. From Canton it will go on west, uniting again with the Baltimore and Ohio at Chicago Junction. This will be the most direct line from Pittsburg to Chicago, and 18 miles shorter than any competitor.

In conversation with a prominent potter this morning he said: "There is not a bit of doubt in my mind that the company means business, and that the building of the road is assured. It would be of great benefit to East Liverpool as an outlet."

SALEM REPUBLICANS.

They Will Go to St. Louis With the McKinley Club.

The Salem News of Wednesday has the following to say of the McKinley club excursion to St. Louis:

"As stated in the News a few days ago, the McKinley club of East Liverpool is arranging for a trip to St. Louis to attend the national Republican convention. Several sleepers will be engaged and the cost of the trip will be less than $25.

"This morning Mr. W. L. Taylor, of East Liverpool, called up the News by telephone to say that the club in Liverpool will send invitations to the Salem club to join the excursion. Invitations will also be sent to Lisbon and other places, making the train one for Republicans of the county who may desire to go to see the next president nominated.

"It is more than likely that a number of members of the Salem Republican club will accept the invitation and go along."

SPORTING NEWS.

News From a Plug Ugly Who Used to be Here.

Peter Murray, the would-be pugilist who stayed in this city long enough to get himself heartily disliked, has at last got his just deserts, and was arrested in Philadelphia yesterday for prize fighting. Such men as him are better in the workhouse. He is dishonest, and a tool for bad men, as was exemplified by his actions when in East Liverpool.

Bert Scheller, the wrestler who spent some time in this city last winter, was defeated in a match with Even Lewis, at Detroit, yesterday.

Tom Twaddle, the ball player who was signed by Syracuse, has received word not to report if he can secure an engagement with another team. The manager of the Syracuse team gave as his reason for this that he has more outfielders on his list now than he can carry.

Salvation Army.

The meeting tonight at the Salvation Army hall will be of very special interest to all who attend. This will probably be the last opportunity the people of East Liverpool will have to hear "Joe, the Turk," or at least for a long time. He will render some new selections on the cornet, clarionette and saxophone, and also new songs. You will regret it if you do not come.

Buying Horses in Stark.

Forty Stark county horses are being selected for export by the German government, each to be 16 hands high, and to cost not over $150 each. If the sample lot is satisfactory, 400 more are to be selected.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, FEB. 14.

For President, WILLIAM MCKINLEY, Of Ohio.

CLEAN POLITICS.

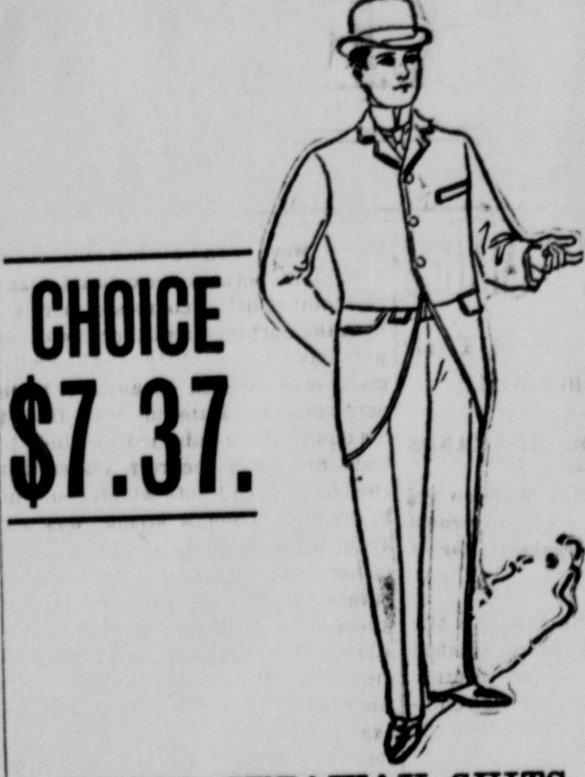

Fellow citizens of East Liverpool, see to it that the men who conduct a clean campaign are the men for whom you cast your ballots. The average voter may not live up to the full standard of "clean hands and a pure heart," but he can possess real manhood, and refuse to give his vote to the political trickster who mistakes cunning for brain power, and who will resort to every class of meanness and chicanery in order that he may reach a coveted position. We want clean men in office and we can have them if we but do our plain duty. Scratch from your ticket the man or men who have failed you in the past—men who have resorted to pot-house politics, and do your utmost to place in office a class of citizens who will do their sworn duty, and who will have the manhood to enforce the laws and ordinances of the municipality. Laugh at the men who claim that they can control a precinct or ward, and show your true worth, merit and manhood by voting for the individual whom, after careful consideration, you believe to be best fitted for the position. Be a true American. Be a man.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.

The interest felt in the contemplated evangelistic meetings deepens daily. The members of the various churches are wide awake and are arranging for the work in every possible way. A general committee has been formed, consisting of the ministers and four efficient laymen from each church. This committee has convened and named the members of the sub-committees, and these will pay proper attention to all details. The funds necessary to meet current expenses must be provided before the coming of Evangelist Schiverea. Subscription papers are now in circulation, and it is sincerely hoped and confidently expected by the general committee, that there will be a hearty response on the part of the people. Union preparatory services will be held as follows: Tuesday, February 18th, at the Christian church. Friday, the 21st, at the Methodist Protestant church. Tuesday, the 25th, at the First U. P. church. Friday, the 28th, at the First Presbyterian church. Other meetings may yet be arranged. Cottage prayer meetings will also be held in many parts of the city. Help the good work along. You have a part in this battle for the right. See to it that you do your full duty.

A Des Moines woman who has been troubled with frequent colds, concluded to try an old remedy in a new way, and accordingly took a tablespoonful (four times the usual dose) of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy just before going to bed. The next morning she found that her cold had almost entirely disappeared. During the day she took a few doses of the remedy (one teaspoonful at a time) and at night again took a tablespoonful before going to bed, and on the following morning awoke free from all symptoms of the cold. Since then she has, on several occasions, used this remedy in like manner, with the same good results, and is much elated over her discovery of so quick a way of curing a cold. For sale by A. H. MAHER GOES BLIND.

His Eyes Temporarily Sightless From Alkali Dust.

THE BIG FIGHT IS POSTPONED.

In the Meantime Stuart May Receive a Concession From the Mexican Government, Which He Has Long Expected. Authorities Still on the Alert.

EL PASO, TEX., Feb. 14.—The following notice is posted about town: "Owing to temporary affliction of Peter Maher's eyes the contest will have to be postponed a few days."

This was agreed to after Julian and Fitzsimmons had examined the eyes of the Irishman and had a conference with Quinn and Connelly.

Maher has been training in an old adobe rink at Las Cruces. The dust was so thick when he was going through his training that visitors complained of it and warned Maher against continuing work in an atmosphere of dust. Sunday one of his eyes began to pain him. Report came down that he had said in the member, but that it was only temporarily inconvenience him. Tuesday both eyes were affected, and the condition of the fighter has been growing worse, until now he cannot see. Maher's trouble is not uncommon in this region. Residents are not so liable to it as those who have been here but a short time. The alkali dust creates an irritation that results in blindness and great pain, but it usually passes away in a week or 10 days.

An army surgeon, who examined Maher's eyes, said he thought they would be well in a week. Dr. Yandell, city health officer, who looked at the sufferer, said Maher would not be able to enter a ring for a week.

Martin Julian and Fitzsimmons were sent for as soon as Maher was brought to this city from Las Cruces. Both examined the sufferer's eyes, expressed their sympathy for him and announced that they would not under the circumstances claim a forfeit. They will give Maher ample time to recover.

Will Dan Stuart get the concession from the Mexican government which will make the attraction of the fight a carnival possible?

That is the question which those who have known of the plan are asking. It is a question which the promoter is now asking himself. Months ago Stuart secured a concession from the Mexican authorities for a tract of land near this city. Everything was understood, but the formal papers were not made out. General Roderio Rubio, a relative of President Diaz, was then secretary of the interior for Mexico. Before the close of the deal Secretary Rubio died. That made a delay in the sending of the papers to Stuart and during that time the promoter sought Dallas and then Hot Springs.

After that failure he determined on his Mexican scheme. In November General Gonzales Cosio was appointed to the position made vacant by the death of Secretary Rubio. Stuart has all along been working upon the belief that at the proper time the formal papers would be made out and his carnival thus assured. His latest advice has been that the concession papers would reach him this week. They are not here, and unless they come in today Stuart must run the gauntlet of soldiers if he brings off any of the fight.

What makes the governor of Chihuahua so determined to stop the fight is the story circulated that he had been paid $20,000 to allow them to come off. He may also have some influence with the Mexican officials toward keeping them from giving Stuart his concession.

Governor Hughes of Arizona has caught the anti-pugilistic fever of the governors of New Mexico and Texas and has prepared to wage actual war against the fighters.

The governor of Chihuahua is patrolling with the troops the river ten miles above and ten miles below Juarez. It will be an easy thing to bring off any number of fights on Mexican soil if the governor does not extend his patrols further down the river. Any number of men can make a run across the line and get out before the officers can reach the scene.

Jimmy Carroll, Fitzsimmons' former manager, tried to attach the stake money to get out $900 Fitzsimmons owes him, in case he won the fight, but O'Rourke, the final stakeholder, had withdrawn the money from the bank.

The big fight has been postponed until Monday at the earliest. If Maher is not in shape to fight at that time Julian will decide as to what he will do regarding his forfeit. Although Julian talks about his forfeit, he really could do nothing else than to agree to the postponement, for he has not a cent of money up for forfeit, all of his $1,000 forfeit being deposited by Stuart personally. If Fitzsimmons demands the forfeit money it will come to Stuart.

Opinions differ as to whether Maher will be able to fight on Monday. Some physicians say that he will be able to use his eyes as well as ever within three days and others say it will be a week at the inside.

Dan Stuart says: "I am willing to stay here a month if these men want to fight. There will certainly be a contest between Maher and Fitzsimmons, or the blame will rest on the shoulders of one of them and not on me. I have done all I could to bring these men together and I intend to stick to my promise."

TITUS AND CABANNE FORGIVEN.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 14.—The representative men of the League of American Wheelmen have gone home after an assembly, which for hard work and its effect upon the future of the league and of bicycling in general, will long be remembered. Among the most important of its results are: The abolition of class B, the determination that the league shall retain control of cycle racing, increasing fees for sanctions, which it is hoped will result in forcing outside clubs to join the league; the adoption of numerous wise rules for the better regulation of racing, and a general strengthening up all around in the league's position.

By leaving it to the executive committee to adopt a plan looking to the selection of a place for the annual meet without leaving it to a vote of the convention a disturbing element has been eliminated from future gatherings of this nature. From the talk in the convention during the discussion of the motion it seems probable that the executive committee will decide to leave the selection of the place for the meet to a vote of all the members of the league, the ballot to be cast in January of each year. The mantle of charity was thrown over the shortcomings of Titus and Cabanne, and almost the final act of the meeting was the practical reduction of their sentence from life suspension to suspension for one year. The restoration of Murphy was also a good thing.

ALLOWED TO STEAL A DOG.

But a West Virginian Is Sentenced For Taking the Chain.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Feb. 14.—In West Virginia, except under certain conditions, a dog, no matter what his value may be in the estimation of his owner, he has no value in the eyes of the law, and is not property.

A month ago James Shack stole a hunting dog from Franklin Barnes, taking the chain also. The grand jury indicted him for the theft, but as the dog could not be legally or illegally stolen, Judge Haywood declared him guilty of stealing the chain and sentenced him to serve 100 seconds in the county jail. The penalty was paid and no appeal taken.

The Law Too Weak.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Attorney General Harmon has sent to the house a reply to the resolution of Jan. 7 requesting him to report what steps he has taken to enforce the law against trusts, combinations and conspiracies in restraint of trade. He points out the weak spots in the law, which makes it practically inoperative.

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—A needle manufactory is soon to be started here, the needles to be made by a machine invented by Eugene Fontaine of Detroit. It will turn out 2,500 needles an hour. They can be sold for 50 cents per thousand as against $1.20 for English and 75 cents for German needles.

JOSEPH BROS.

MAHER GOES BLIND.

His Eyes Temporarily Sightless From Alkali Dust.

THE BIG FIGHT IS POSTPONED.

In the Meantime Stuart May Receive a Concession From the Mexican Government, Which He Has Long Expected. Authorities Still on the Alert.

EL PASO, TEX., Feb. 14.—The following notice is posted about town: "Owing to temporary affliction of Peter Maher's eyes the contest will have to be postponed a few days."

This was agreed to after Julian and Fitzsimmons had examined the eyes of the Irishman and had a conference with Quinn and Connelly.

Maher has been training in an old adobe rink at Las Cruces. The dust was so thick when he was going through his training that visitors complained of it and warned Maher against continuing work in an atmosphere of dust.

Sunday one of his eyes began to hurt. Report came down that he had sand in the member, but that it would only temporarily inconvenience him. Tuesday both eyes were affected, and the condition of the fighter has been growing worse, until now he cannot see. Maher's trouble is not uncommon in this region. Residents are not so liable to it as those who have been here but a short time. The alkali dust creates an irritation that results in blindness and great pain, but it usually passes away in a week or 10 days.

An army surgeon, who examined Maher's eyes, said he thought they would be well in a week. Dr. Vandell, city health officer, who looked at the sufferer, said Maher would not be able to enter a ring for a week.

Martin Julian and Fitzsimmons were sent for as soon as Maher was brought to this city from Las Cruces. Both examined the sufferer's eyes, expressed their sympathy for him and announced that they would not under the circumstances claim a forfeit. They will give Maher ample time to recover.

Will Dan Stuart get the concession from the Mexican government which will make the attraction of the fight a carnival possible?

That is the question which those who have known of the plan are asking. It is a question which the promoter is now asking himself. Months ago Stuart secured a concession from the Mexican authorities for a tract of land near this city. Everything was understood, but the formal papers were not made out. General Roderio Rubio, a relative of President Diaz, was then secretary of the interior for Mexico. Before the close of the deal Secretary Rubio died. That made a delay in the sending of the papers to Stuart and during that time the promoter sought Dallas and then Hot Springs.

After that failure he determined on his Mexican scheme. In November General Gonzales Cosio was appointed to the position made vacant by the death of Secretary Rubio. Stuart has all along been working upon the belief that at the proper time the formal papers would be made out and his carnival thus assured. His latest advice has been that the concession papers would reach him this week. They are not here, and unless they come in today Stuart must run the gauntlet of soldiers if he brings off any of the fights.

What makes the governor of Chihuahua so determined to stop the fight is the story circulated that he had been paid $20,000 to allow them to come off. He may also have some influence with the Mexican officials toward keeping them from giving Stuart his concession.

Governor Hughes of Arizona has caught the anti-pugilistic fever of the governors of New Mexico and Texas and has prepared to wage actual war against the fighters.

The governor of Chihuahua is patrolling with the troops the river ten miles above and ten miles below Juarez. It will be an easy thing to bring off any number of fights on Mexican soil if the governor does not extend his patrol further down the river. Any number of men can make a run across the line and get out before the officers can reach the scene.

Jimmy Carroll, Fitzsimmons' former manager, tried to attach the stake money to get out $900 Fitzsimmons owes him, in case he won the fight, but O'Rourke, the final stakeholder, had withdrawn the money from the bank.

The big fight has been postponed until Monday at the earliest. If Maher is not in shape to fight at that time Julian will decide as to what he will do regarding his forfeit. Although Julian talks about his forfeit, he really could do nothing else than to agree to the postponement, for he has not a cent of money up as forfeit, all of his $1,000 forfeit being deposited by Stuart personally. If Fitzsimmons demands the forfeit money it will come to Stuart.

Opinions differ as to whether Maher will be able to fight on Monday. Some physicians say that he will be able to use his eyes as well as ever within three days and others say it will be a week at the inside.

Dan Stuart says: "I am willing to stay here a month if these men want to fight. There will certainly be a contest between Maher and Fitzsimmons, or the blame will rest on the shoulders of one of them and not on me. I have done all I could to bring these men together and I intend to stick to my promise."

TITUS AND CABANNE FORGIVEN.

The L. A. W. Reduces Their Suspension to One Year—Win Convention Work.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 14.—The representative men of the League of American Wheelmen have gone home after an assembly, which for hard work and its effect upon the future of the league and of bicycling in general, will long be remembered. Among the most important of its results are: The abolition of class B, the determination that the league shall retain control of cycle racing, increasing fees for sanctions, which it is hoped will result in forcing outside clubs to join the league; the adoption of numerous wise rules for the better regulation of racing, and a general strengthening up all around in the league's position.

By leaving it to the executive committee to adopt a plan looking to the selection of a place for the annual meet without leaving it to a vote of the convention a disturbing element has been eliminated from future gatherings of this nature. From the talk in the convention during the discussion of the motion it seems probable that the executive committee will decide to leave the selection of the place for the meet to a vote of all the members of the league, the ballot to be cast in January of each year. The mantle of charity was thrown over the shortcomings of Titus and Cabanne, and almost the final act of the meeting was the practical reduction of their sentence from life suspension to suspension for one year. The restoration of Murphy was also a good thing.

ALLOWED TO STEAL A DOG.

But a West Virginian Is Sentenced For Taking the Chain.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Feb. 14.—In West Virginia, except under certain conditions, a dog, no matter what his value may be in the estimation of his owner, he has no value in the eyes of the law, and is not property.

A month ago James Shack stole a hunting dog from Franklin Barnes, taking the chain also. The grand jury indicted him for the theft, but as the dog could not be legally or illegally stolen, Judge Haywood declared him guilty of stealing the chain and sentenced him to serve 100 seconds in the county jail. The penalty was paid and no appeal taken.

INTREPID DR. NANSEN

Likely to Never Be Heard From Again.

HAS FOUND THE NORTH POLE.

News of His Success Comes Through His Agent in Siberia—Lieutenant Brainerd Explains the Norwegian's Theory of a Current to the Pole.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Lieutenant Brainerd, United States navy, who accompanied the Greeley expedition, very much doubts whether Dr. Nansen, the Norwegian explorer, reported to have reached the North Pole, will ever return alive.

Dr. Nansen, according to Lieutenant Brainerd, who based his theory of the current which he relied on to carry him through the Arctic regions on the fact that the trend of the Jeannette was generally in the direction of the pole, and pieces of drift wood, carved woodwork of Alaska Indians, etc., have been found on the east and west coast of Greenland and along the west coast of Ellesmere and Grinnell land, which, from their appearance and character, seem to indicate that they had drifted from the Siberian coast of Alaska.

Therefore, the supposition was advanced that they drifted across the pole down the east coast of Greenland, around Cape Farewell and up into Baffin's bay and Smith's sound. It was also recalled by Lieutenant Brainerd that the relics of the Jeannette, left on the ice at the time she was crushed, were eventually found on the west coast of Greenland.

But, the lieutenant added: "Dr. Nansen seems to have disregarded, or at all events, taken his chances on one important factor, the baffling and uncertain nature of the current flow, about which nothing is definitely known."

"I believe that not only will the Nansen expedition prove a failure, but that it will end in disaster. I think it doubtful whether Dr. Nansen will ever be heard from. I think that he has had too little experience to cope with the difficulties he will inevitably encounter, and especially with the ice."

The news came through a telegram from Irkutsk, Siberia, saying that a Siberian trader named Konchareff, who is the agent of Dr. Nansen, had received information to the effect that Dr. Nansen has reached the North Pole, had found land there and is now returning toward civilization.

Dr. Nansen sailed in a specially designed steamer, the Fram, June 24, 1893. He is about 35 years old. He had 11 companions.

The Norwegian parliament allowed Nansen about $52,000 to fit out his craft, and in addition he was assisted in his work by many private subscriptions, including one of $5,000 from King Oscar.

The sides of the Fram were so constructed as to force all ice meeting the vessel to pass underneath her, thus preventing "pinching" and "screwing."

The cabin of the Fram was heated by means of a petroleum stove, which consumed three litres of petroleum per day, and the explorer took along with him a sufficient supply of this fuel to last him eight or nine years. There they dwell, eat and work. The suits they wear cannot be penetrated by water.

THOUSANDS IN ATTENDANCE.

Remarkable Scene at Bat Shea's Funeral. A Priest's Sensible Talk.

TROY, N. Y., Feb. 14.—The funeral of Bat Shea, electrocuted for the killing of Ross in the Troy election riot, was a remarkable demonstration. It took two carriages to convey the flowers. Fully 10,000 people crowded about the church, where solemn high mass was said for the dead, unable to get in.

At the conclusion of the mass the vicar General Swift came to the front of the church and said in substance: "The church has not had the body of our brother brought here for any purpose other than to give a penitent the last rites accorded to any member of the church. The objects of the church are law and order, and in this case justice has been done. The deceased had wandered from the precepts of the church and is a sad example to young men inclined to forget their early lessons."

THE PEARL BRYAN MURDER.

Several More Clues Developed—Rewards For the Head.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 14.—The mysterious murder of Pearl Bryan has several more clues. An umbrella handle was found near the scene of the murder and a handless razor found in Walling's trunk. There is a reward of $500 by two morning papers, $50 by the owner of the farm on which the murder was committed for the discovery of Pearl Bryan's head, with prospect of $500 more from citizens of Greencastle, Ind., making $1,150. This, with the intensifying interest in the solving of the mystery, stimulates the search by everybody. The water is being drained out of the canal, and today the search will begin in its slimy bed.

Sherriff Plummer of Newport, Ky., has gone to Frankfort, Ky., for requisition for Scott Jackson and Alonzo M. Walling, the men in jail here jointly indicted by the Campbell county grand jury for the murder of Pearl Bryan.

The charge against Walling and Jackson was changed here from murder to "fugitives from justice" for the abandonment of jurisdiction by Ohio and facilitating their extradition to Kentucky. The prisoners will contest extradition.

The incarceration of William Wood for complicity in abortion and in procuring poison surprised the young man. Dr. Rust was averse to going on his bond again. His counsel, David Davis, said it was better for him to be in jail. Counsel did not attempt to get bond for him. Wood is very indignant.

Jackson in an interview in jail said he was willing to go to Newport and in case he was lynched Walling would be also and there would be the satisfaction that the guilty life went out with the innocent one. Walling said subsequently the same thing, promising that Jackson's would be the guilty life.

MURDERERS TO BE LYNCHED.

Moonskinners Preparing to Avenge the Killing of Pearl Bryan.

MUNCIE, Ind., Feb. 14.—A letter received in this city discloses a plot to lynch Scott Jackson, Alonzo Walling and William Wood. It says that at least 3,000 men will take part in the killing. There now lives in Muncie three families who formerly resided in the moonskinners' district of Kentucky and West Virginia. They are members of the moonskinners organization, which it is said has over 3,000 members and have been invited to go to Kentucky to help in the lynching.

The letter stated that the mob would be furnished with Winchester rifles; also that a paper had been secretly circulated in Newport, Ky., and 1,500 men had signed it, signifying their willingness to join the moonskinners. It was further said that unless the murderers were taken to Kentucky a mob of 4,000 would be taken down on the Cincinnati jail armed with Winchester and lynch the men.

A MONEY CONFERENCE.

Dingley Intimates That One Is On the Tapis.

BILL LIKELY TO BE REPORTED.

Other Nations to Be Asked to Participate—The Senate Free Coinage Amendment to the Bond Bill Rejected in the House—A Hot Debate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—After a ten days' debate the house by a vote of 80 to 190 in committee of the whole has rejected the senate free coinage amendment to the bond bill and reported the bill to the house with a recommendation to non-concur and insist on the house bill. The strength developed by the silver men was disappointing. They had been confidently claiming over 100 votes. After the debate closes today the final vote will be taken. Mr. Dingley will close for the majority and Mr. Crisp for the minority. Propositions were offered to concur with amendments as follows:

To coin the American silver product for the retention of the seigniorage by the government and to open the mints to the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 15 1/2 to 1 when Germany and France should have agreed upon similar action. All were defeated by large majorities. The last proposition, offered by Mr. Towne (Conn.), mustered 53 votes, the highest number of any. Mr. Towne had stated to the house that similar propositions would be submitted to the reichstag and the French parliament.

The most significant statement came in the form of an intimation from Mr. Dingley that a bill might be reported from the ways and means committee looking to the initiation by this country of a project for another international monetary conference, to meet within a year. While Mr. Dingley said he was simply expressing his personal opinion in the matter, it was generally understood, from the manner in which he said it, that the suggestion had already matured into a well-defined intention on the part of the Republican leaders of the house.

Although the galleries were thronged and there was a good deal of outside interest manifested in the closing of the debate, as evidenced by the presence of Senator Sherman and others from the other end of the capitol, the debate itself was only saved from utter stagnation by a very spirited and very personal encounter between Mr. DeArmond and Mr. Hall, both Missouri Democrats, on different sides of the financial question.

TARIFF MEN REPULSED.

The Senate Defeats Morrill's Motion to Take Up the Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The friends of the tariff bill met an unexpected repulse when by the decisive vote of 21 yeas to 29 nays the senate defeated the motion of Mr. Morrill, chairman of the finance committee to take up the tariff bill. The negative vote which defeated the motion was given by Democrats, Populists and four Republican senators, viz: Teller, Mantle, DuBois and Carter. The affirmative vote was entirely Republican, but its total of 21 is less than half of the aggregate Republican strength.

The urgent deficiency bill was passed. It carries about $6,000,000, a considerable increase over the bill passed in the house. A resolution was adopted directing the Pacific railroad committee to make full inquiry into the status of the Pacific railroads. In this connection Mr. Allen criticized the manner of hearing the interested railroad officials and not the disinterested raters of the road. Later in the day Mr. Pettigrew made a savage speech against the "highway-men and conspirators" connected with the Pacific railroads and urged the foreclosure of government liens.

A RASCALLY CORRESPONDENT.

Spain Rightfully Orders Mannix Expelled From Cuba.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Although William F. Mannix, the correspondent of the Philadelphia Press who is about to be expelled from Cuba by the Spanish officials, has lodged a protest with the state department through United States Consul Williams, which will certainly not command any sympathy in his case, in view of the record of the proceedings of Mannix, which is now in the possession of the state department.

This record is in his own handwriting in the shape of letters addressed by him to certain officials, and shows clearly that he proposed to the Spanish authorities to act as a spy upon the Cuban insurgents, that he offered to betray to them a Cuban officer with whom he slept. Meanwhile he was favoring the rebels in his articles, and other evidences of treachery are revealed. His letters also abound with appeals to the Spaniards for money, and it is in evidence that he was negotiating with both sides in Cuba.

Gold Withdrawn From Bonds.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Heavy withdrawals of gold, presumably for the purpose of making payments on bond purchases, continue to be reported from the sub-treasury at New York. The withdrawals amounted to $1,271,600, of which $1,200,000 was in coin and $71,600 in bars. This leaves the true amount of the reserve so far as reported, $63,664,371.

INTREPID DR. NANSEN

Likely to Never Be Heard From Again.

HAS FOUND THE NORTH POLE.

News of His Success Comes Through His Agent in Siberia—Lieutenant Brainerd Explains the Norwegian's Theory of a Current to the Pole.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Lieutenant Brainerd, United States navy, who accompanied the Greeley expedition, very much doubts whether Dr. Nansen, the Norwegian explorer, reported to have reached the North Pole, will ever return alive.

Dr. Nansen, according to Lieutenant Brainerd, who based his theory of the current which he relied on to carry him through the Arctic regions on the fact that the trend of the Jeannette was generally in the direction of the pole, and pieces of drift wood, carved woodwork of Alaska Indians, etc., have been found on the east and west coast of Greenland and along the west coast of Ellesmere and Grinnell land, which, from their appearance and character, seem to indicate that they had drifted from the Siberian coast or Alaska.

Therefore, the supposition was advanced that they drifted across the pole down the east coast of Greenland, around Cape Farewell and up into Baffin's bay and Smith's sound. It was also recalled by Lieutenant Brainerd that the relics of the Jeannette, left on the ice at the time she was crushed, were eventually found on the west coast of Greenland.

But, the lieutenant added: "Dr. Nansen seems to have disregarded, or at all events, taken his chances on one important factor, the baffling and uncertain nature of the current flow, about which nothing is definitely known."

"I believe that not only will the Nansen expedition prove a failure, but that it will end in disaster. I think it doubtful whether Dr. Nansen will ever be heard from. I think that he has had too little experience to cope with the difficulties he will inevitably encounter, and especially with the ice."

The news came through a telegram from Irkutsk, Siberia, saying that a Siberian trader named Konechny, who is the agent of Dr. Nansen, had received information to the effect that Dr. Nansen has reached the North Pole, had found land there and is now returning toward civilization.

Dr. Nansen sailed in a specially designed steamer, the Fram, June 24, 1893. He is about 35 years old. He had 11 companions.

The Norwegian parliament allowed Nansen about $52,000 to fit out his craft, and in addition he was assisted in his work by many private subscriptions, including one of $5,000 from King Oscar.

The sides of the Fram were so constructed as to force all ice meeting the vessel to pass underneath her, thus preventing "pinching" and "screwing."

The cabin of the Fram was heated by means of a petroleum stove, which consumed three litres of petroleum per day, and the explorer took along with him a sufficient supply of this fuel to last him eight or nine years. There they dwell, eat and work. The suits they wear cannot be penetrated by water.

THOUSANDS IN ATTENDANCE.

Remarkable Scene at Bat Shea's Funeral.

A Priest's Sensible Talk.

TROY, N. Y., Feb. 14.—The funeral of Bat Shea, electrocuted for the killing of Ross in the Troy election riot, was a remarkable demonstration. It took two carriages to convey the flowers. Fully 10,000 people crowded about the church, where solemn high mass was said for the dead, unable to get in.

At the conclusion of the mass the Vicar General Swift came to the front of the chancel and said in substance: "The church has not had the body of our brother brought here for any purpose other than to give a penitent the last rites accorded to any member of the church. The objects of the church are law and order, and in this case justice has been applied. The deceased had wandered from the precepts of the church and is a sad example to young men inclined to forget their early lessons."

"As to the guilt or innocence of this crime for which he died I do not know. Neither did he, and his last protests were that he was not the man who did the crime. We are a Christian community, and as Christians we should forgive this man. The church should forgive everybody before he died and asked me to tell his parents and friends that he hoped they would forget and forgive."

Fully 3,000 persons watched the body lowered into its last resting place, the men with heads uncovered and many of the women upon their knees in the snow.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—Truth says that Princess Beatrice, widow of Prince Henry of Battenberg, is to be created Duchess of Kent with remainder to her sons.

THE PEARL BRYAN MURDER.

Several More Clues Developed—Rewards For the Head.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 14.—The mysterious murder of Pearl Bryan has several more clues. An umbrella handle was found near the scene of the murder and a handless razor found in Walling's trunk. There is a reward of $500 by two morning papers, $50 by the owner of the farm on which the murder was committed for the discovery of Pearl Bryan's head, with prospect of $500 more from citizens of Greencastle, Ind., making $1,150. This, with the intensifying interest in the solving of the mystery, stimulates the search by everybody. The water is being drained out of the canal, and today the search will begin in its slimy bed.

Sheriff Plummer of Newport, Ky., has gone to Frankfort, Ky., for requisition for Scott Jackson, and Alonzo M. Walling, the men in jail jointly indicted by the Campbell county grand jury for the murder of Pearl Bryan.

The charge against Walling and Jackson was changed here from murder to "fugitives from justice" for the abandonment of jurisdiction by Ohio and facilitating their extradition to Kentucky. The prisoners will contest extradition.

The incarceration of William Wood for complicity in abortion and in procuring poison surprised the young man. Dr. Rust was averse to going on his trial again. His counsel, David Davis, said it was better for him to be in jail. Counsel did not attempt to get bond for him. Wood is very indignant.

Jackson in an interview in jail said he was willing to go to Newport and in case he was lynched Walling would be also and there would be the satisfaction that the guilty life went out with the innocent one. Walling said subsequently the same thing, premising that Jackson's would be the guilty life.

MURDERERS TO BE LYNCHED.

Moonshiners Preparing to Avenge the Killing of Pearl Bryan.

MUNCIE, Ind., Feb. 14.—A letter received in this city discloses a plot to lynch Scott Jackson, Alonzo Walling and William Wood. It says that at least 3,000 men will take part in the killing. There now lives in Muncie three families who formerly resided in the moonshiner's district of Kentucky and West Virginia. They are members of the moonshiners organization, which it is said has over 3,000 members, and have been invited to go to Kentucky to help in the lynching.

The letter stated that the mob would be furnished with Winchester rifles, also that a paper had been secretly circulated in Newport, Ky., and 1,500 men had signed it, signifying their willingness to join the moonshiners. It was further said that unless the murderers were taken to Kentucky a mob of 4,000 would bear down on the Cincinnati jail armed with Winchesters and lynch the men.

A MONEY CONFERENCE.

Dingley Intimates That One Is On the Tapis.

BILL LIKELY TO BE REPORTED.

Other Nations to Be Asked to Participate—The Senate Free Coinage Amendment to the Bond Bill Rejected in the House—A Hot Debate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—After a ten days' debate the house by a vote of 80 to 190 in committee of the whole has rejected the senate free coinage amendment to the bond bill and reported the bill to the house with a recommendation to non-concur and insist on the house bill. The strength developed by the silver men was disappointing. They had been confidently claiming over 100 votes. After the debate closes today the final vote will be taken. Mr. Dingley will close for the majority and Mr. Crisp for the minority. Propositions were offered to concur with amendments as follows:

To coin the American silver product for the retention of the seigniorage by the government and to open the mints to the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 15 1/2 to 1 when Germany and France should have agreed upon similar action. All were defeated by large majorities. The last proposition, offered by Mr. Towne (Maine), mustered 53 votes, the highest number of any. Mr. Towne had stated to the house that similar propositions would be submitted to the reichstag and the French parliament.

The most significant statement came in the form of an intimation from Mr. Dingley that a bill might be reported from the ways and means committee looking to the initiation by this country of a project for another international monetary conference, to meet within a year. While Mr. Dingley said he was simply expressing his personal opinion in the matter, it was generally understood, from the manner in which he said it, that the suggestion had already matured into a well-defined intention on the part of the Republican leaders of the house.

Although the galleries were thronged and there was a good deal of outside interest manifested in the closing of the debate, as evidenced by the presence of Senator Sherman and others from the other end of the capitol, the debate itself was only saved from utter stagnation by a very spirited and very personal encounter between Mr. DeArmond and Mr. Hall, both Missouri Democrats, on different sides of the financial question.

TARIFF MEN REPULSED.

The Senate Defeats Morrill's Motion to Take Up the Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The friends of the tariff bill met an unexpected repulse when by the decisive vote of 21 years to 29 days the senate defeated the motion of Mr. Morrill, chairman of the finance committee to take up the tariff bill. The negative vote which defeated the motion was given by Democrats, Populists and four Republican senators, viz: Teller, Mantle, Dubois and Carter. The affirmative vote was entirely Republican, but its total of 21 is less than half of the aggregate Republican strength.

The urgent deficiency bill was passed. It carries about $6,000,000, a considerable increase over the bill passed in the house.

A resolution was adopted directing the Pacific railroad committee to make full inquiry into the status of the Pacific railroads. In this connection Mr. Allen criticized the manner of locating the interested railroad officials and the disinterested patrons of the road. Later in the day Mr. Pettigrew made a savage speech against the "highway-men and conspirators" connected with the Pacific railroads and urged the foreclosure of government liens.

A RASCALLY CORRESPONDENT.

Spain Rightfully Orders Mannix Expelled From Cuba.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Although William F. Mannix, the correspondent of the Philadelphia Press who is about to be expelled from Cuba by the Spanish officials, has lodged a protest with the state department through United States Consul Williams, this will certainly not command any sympathy in his case, in view of the record of the proceedings of Mannix, which is now in the possession of the state department.

This record is in his own handwriting in the shape of letters addressed by him to certain officials, and shows clearly that he proposed to the Spanish authorities to act as a spy upon the Cuban insurgents, that he offered to betray to them a Cuban officer with whom he slept. Meanwhile he was favoring the rebels in his articles, and other evidences of treachery are revealed. His letters also abound with appeals to the Spaniards for money, and it is in evidence that he was negotiating with both sides in Cuba.

Gold Withdrawn From Bonds.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Heavy withdrawals of gold presumably for the purpose of making payments on bond purchases, continue to be reported from the sub-treasury at New York. The withdrawals amounted to $1,271,600, of which $1,200,000 was in coin and $71,600 in bars. This leaves the true amount of the reserve so far as reported, $63,664,371.

Venezuela Accepts the Invitation.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Through Senator Andrade, its minister here, the government of Venezuela has notified Secretary Olney that it will respond affirmatively to the invitation of the Venezuelan boundary commission to submit all of the evidence in its possession touching the location of the true boundary line.

A COMPLAINT

Heard From a Resident Who Lives Near
the Power House.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—I would like, through the columns of your paper, to let the police authorities know I will give any of them their dinner any time if they will do their duty and come up our way, and see that the children living about the powerhouse who go to school can do so with safety. Our girls are insulted with language not fit for utterance and indecent exposures. Our small boys are bullied by almost grown toughs, who think themselves young men. Silence and patience have ceased to be a virtue. They should have a salty dose of the law.

MRS. LUCY HARGREAVES.

Court News.

LISBON, Feb. 14.—The courts decision was rendered this morning in the case of Edward G. Adams against Hiram and Annie Rigby, of East Liverpool, in favor of the defendants. This action which was recently tried was to recover the possession of the rear 30 feet of a lot on the north side of Fifth street, which was being purchased by Adams from the defendants. After the deed was made it was discovered that this part of it had been reserved by defendants, and the suit was at once brought.

Marian Hedstad was made the plaintiff against the heirs of Albert Priest, who died in Mahoning county 20 years ago, in an action for partition of a 16 acre tract of land in Knox township, this county.

The Contract Violated.

William Jackson, colored, who was sent to the infirmary by the trustees, tells a harrowing story of how he was turned out of the house of the man in whom he had placed implicit confidence. He says that a verbal contract was made that he receive board free of charge for the remainder of his natural life, and in consideration for this privilege, Jackson had his life insured, payable to his benefactor at death. The contract was not kept, as Jackson showed such unmistakable signs of enjoying a lengthy continuance on this mundane sphere, so faith was broken by the fellow, who thought that he had a good thing.

At the Grand.

"A Hornet's Nest" is the name of the side-splitting comedy which will be produced at the Grand tonight by the Webber Ideals. This play is the property of the company, and press and public have been liberal in its praise. It is full of everything that goes to make up a first class comedy, and produced by a capable company, such as the Webbers are, will no doubt draw a large audience. The company will give a family matinee tomorrow afternoon.

On Their Base.

An unreliable sheet of this city stated that Detective Huckle had a number of cases before the grand jury at the last term. As usual, this is a clean cut falsehood. The Good Citizens' league had cases there, however, and a number of illegal liquor sellers know this to their sorrow, as numerous true bills were found, in consequence, against these law breakers. The liquor dealers' organ, and the supporter of illegal sellers, is evidently hit hard.

"Hornet's Nest" at the Grand tonight. 'Tis a dandy nice comedy. Laugh and grow fat. Don't miss it.

Very Contagious.

The funeral of the 10-months-old child of Samuel Faulk, of Washington street, who died yesterday of spotted fever, took place this morning from the house. As soon as the cause of death was discovered the house was quarantined and fumigated by the health authorities, as the disease is very contagious and proves fatal in almost every instance.

A Defective Flue.

What might have been a disastrous fire occurred at the residence of H. L. Simms, yesterday afternoon. The fire was caused by a defective flue, and only the fact that it was quickly discovered saved the house. By pulling off some weather boarding Mr. Simms extinguished the flames. THEY WERE BEARS.

How a Hunter Bagged a Ton of Them in Thirty Seconds.

"I believe I got as big a bag of bears in as short a time as any man ever did," said Doc Stadley, the ex-sheriff and bear hunter of Mendocino.

"A bag of bears?" exclaimed the young man who had just been telling about a bag of snipe he had once killed. "What were they—little fellows? What is it you call them—kittens? No, cub's that's it."

"No, sir. They were not kittens or cubs. They were bears," declared Doc. "I think I piled up about a ton of bear meat in about 30 seconds. I was out hunting in the southern part of Trinity county about 17 or 18 years ago. We had killed about 40 deer and 3 panthers and were pretty near ready to break camp when I thought I would go out and kill another deer to take home fresh. It was late in the afternoon, and I was creeping along in the brush, when suddenly I came out into a little opening. I stopped to see if there was any sign of deer, and while I stood looking about a big black bear climbed up on the trunk of a big fir tree that had been uprooted. He wasn't 30 yards away, and I plugged him in the ear. He rolled off the log and down the hill toward me, but before I had time to see if he was dead another bear climbed up on that same log to see what the row was about. I shot it in the head, and it rolled down the same way the other had gone. Up climbed a big 2-year-old to take its place, and after I had shot it two big yearlings, one after the other, climbed up on the log to be shot.

"Every one rolled down the hill toward me and was kicking and thrashing around not ten steps away. By that time I came to the conclusion that I was in a bear country, and I didn't lose any time climbing a sapling. When I got well braced up among the limbs, I sat and pumped lead into that pile of bears. Every time one kicked I gave him a bullet, till they all stopped kicking. I had five bears in one pile, and I think they must have weighed over a ton altogether."—San Francisco Post.

Learning a Foreign Language.

Some interesting statistics might be collected on the effect upon linguistic power and accent of the possession of a musical ear. It would seem that a person with a good ear for music would be more rapid in the acquirement of a foreign tongue, and having acquired it would possess a more perfect pronunciation of the sounds than would a person not having the same ready musical gift.

Similarly such a person would be quick to attain the dialect of the country in which he might be living and to adapt his speech to the brogue or provincialism with which he found his ears surrounded.

The greater rapidity with which Germans, Poles and Russians learn the English language is surely not to be accounted for merely by stating that their own more nearly resembles our language than does that of the French or Italian. A Greek, for instance, learns English in about half the time it takes an Italian to acquire French, and a Russian will speak French, English and German in the same period that a Frenchman will acquire a mere smattering of the two latter.—Pearson's Weekly.

The Southern Aurora.

On Feb. 1, in latitude 66 degrees, longitude 172 degrees 31 minutes, we ran into open water again, having this time spent only six days in the ice pack. On the 17th the aurora appeared, stronger than I ever saw it in the north. It rose from the southwest, stretching in a broad stream up toward the zenith and down again toward the eastern horizon. The phenomenon this time had quite a different appearance from what we saw on Oct. 20. It now presented long shining curtains rising and falling

In wonderful shapes and shades, sometimes seemingly close down to our mastheads. It evidently exerted considerable influence upon the magnetic needle of our compass.—C. E. Borchgrevink in Century.

Met the Emergency.

The following incident happened at the Criterion theater in London the other evening. At the end of one of the scenes Mr. Wyndham tells a fellow actor to go down stairs and he will follow him in three minutes. Then, as he takes out his watch, the curtain should descend. On this occasion, however, it failed to do so, and the Squire of Dames reclined on the sofa, patiently waiting. An almost painful pause occurred. The curtain jerked, but would not fulfill its mission, and Mr. Wyndham, realizing the situation, again pulled out his watch, and said, "Ah, two minutes have passed." There was another pause, after which he arose and announced that "the time was up and he must go." As he left the stage the curtain at last descended, and Mr. Wyndham's ready wit was much applauded.—London Globe.

One Drawback.

There's no such thing in this life as complete satisfaction. If a man has no money, he is miserable, and if he has lots of it, it is next to impossible to invest it remuneratively. There is no business which is sure to pay, not even the business of stealing, but that's because there are so many persons in it, and there would be many more in it if the penitentiary did not prevent it from being open to everybody, and so be utterly ruined.—Boston Transcript.

A countenance habitually under the influence of amiable feelings acquires a beauty of the highest order from the frequency with which such feelings stamp their character upon it.—Mrs. S. C. Hale.

A COMPLAINT

Heard From A Resident Who Lives Near
the Power House.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—I would like, through the columns of your paper, to let the police authorities know I will give any of them their dinner any time if they will do their duty and come up our way, and see that the children living about the powerhouse who go to school can do so with safety. Our girls are insulted with language not fit for utterance and indecent exposures. Our small boys are bullied by almost grown toughs, who think themselves young men. Silence and patience have ceased to be a virtue. They should have a salty dose of the law.

Court News.

LISBON, Feb. 14.—The courts decision was rendered this morning in the case of Edward G. Adams against Hiram and Annie Rigby, of East
Liverpool, in favor of the defendants.
This action which was recently tried was to recover the possession of the rear 30 feet of a lot on the north side of Fifth street, which was being purchased by Adams from the defendants.
After the deed was made it was discovered that this part of it had been reserved by defendants, and the suit was at once brought.

Marian Hedstand was made the plaintiff against the heirs of Albert Priest, who died in Mahoning county 20 years ago, in an action for partition of a 16 acre tract of land in Knox township, this county.

The Contract Violated.

William Jackson, colored, who was sent to the infirmary by the trustees, tells a harrowing story of how he was turned out of the house of the man in whom he had placed implicit confidence. He says that a verbal contract was made that he receive board free of charge for the remainder of his natural life, and in consideration for this privilege, Jackson had his life insured, payable to his benefactor at death. The contract was not kept, as Jackson showed such unmistakable signs of enjoying a lengthy continuance on this mundane sphere, so faith was broken by the fellow, who thought that he had a good thing.

At the Grand.

"A Hornet's Nest" is the name of the side-splitting comedy which will be produced at the Grand tonight by the Webber Ideals. This play is the property of the company, and press and public have been liberal in its praise. It is full of everything that goes to make up a first class comedy, and produced by a capable company,
such as the Webbers are, will no doubt draw a large audience. The company will give a family matinee tomorrow afternoon.

Off Their Base.

An unreliable sheet of this city stated that Detective Huckle had a number of cases before the grand jury at the last term. As usual, this is a clean cut falsehood. The Good Citizens' league had cases there, however,
and a number of illegal liquor sellers know this to their sorrow, as numerous true bills were found, in consequence, against these law breakers. The liquor dealers' organ, and the supporter of illegal sellers, is evidently hit hard.

spotted fever, took place this morning from the house. As soon as the cause of death was discovered the house was health authorities, as the disease is very contagious and proves fatal in almost every instance.

I was creeping along in the brush, when suddenly I came out into a little opening. I stopped to see if there was any sign of deer, and while I stood looking about a big black bear climbed up on the trunk of a big fir tree that had been uprooted. He wasn't 30 yards away, and I plugged him in the ear. He rolled off the log and down the hill toward me, but before I had time to see if he was dead another bear climbed up on that same log to see what the row was about.
I shot it in the head, and it rolled down the same way the other had gone.
Up climbed a big 2-year-old to take its place, and after I had shot it two big yearlings, one after the other, climbed up on the log to be shot.

"Every one rolled down the hill toward me and was kicking and thrashing around not ten steps away. By that time I came to the conclusion that I was in a bear country, and I didn't lose any time climbing a sapling. When I got well braced up among the limbs, I sat and pumped lead into that pile of bears.
Every time one kicked I gave him a bullet, till they all stopped kicking. I had five bears in one pile, and I think they must have weighed over a ton altogether."—San Francisco Post.

Learning a Foreign Language.

Some interesting statistics might be collected on the effect upon linguistic power and accent of the possession of a musical ear. It would seem that a person with a good ear for music would be more rapid in the acquirement of a foreign tongue, and having acquired it would possess a more perfect pronunciation of the sounds than would a person not having the same ready musical gift.
Similarly such a person would be quick to attain the dialect of the country in which he might be living and to adapt his speech to the brogue or provincialism with which he found his ears surrounded.

The greater rapidity with which Germans, Poles and Russians learn the English language is surely not to be accounted for merely by stating that their own more nearly resembles our language than does that of the French or Italian.
A Greek, for instance, learns English in about half the time it takes an Italian to acquire French, and a Russian will speak French, English and German in the same period that a Frenchman will acquire a mere smattering of the two latter.—Pearson's Weekly.

The Southern Aurora.

On Feb. 1, in latitude 66 degrees, longitude 172 degrees 31 minutes, we ran into open water again, having this time spent only six days in the ice pack.
On the 17th the aurora appeared, stronger than I ever saw it in the north. It rose from the southwest, stretching in a broad stream up toward the zenith and down again toward the eastern horizon. The phenomenon this time had quite a different appearance from what we saw on Oct. 30. It now presented long shining curtains rising and falling
